

Apply now: New scholarships for studying at EBS in Germany

eXebs, the alumni association of the European Business School (EBS), is pleased to announce two new scholarships that will make studying at EBS both more affordable and rewarding.

The "eXebs Friedrich J. Schoening International Scholarship supported by DAAD" and the "eXebs - Greenhill Friedrich J. Schoening International Scholarship supported by DAAD – where unique talent meets unique banking" are for people from developing countries with demonstrated ability in management skill, visionary thinking and social conscience as well as financial need. The two scholarships carry a monthly stipend of at least EUR 250 for the entire stay at EBS (1 or 2 semesters) and a one-time welcome allowance of up to EUR 250. On top of that all scholarship beneficiaries will be invited to exclusive networking and recruiting events.

Applications for the fall term (starting August 2008) should be submitted as soon as possible to scholarship@exebs.org quoting "Scholarship application August 2008" in the subject line. All current graduate and undergraduate students in good standing are welcome to apply.

A complete application (in pdf or MS Word format) consists of the following:

1. A cover letter in English (max. 1 page) setting out the reasons for applying and explaining financial need;
2. An up-to-date resume according to the attached template (including date of birth, but no picture);
3. The two latest university transcripts;
4. A short description (max. half a page) of "The Challenge". The Challenge can be any social, academic or artistic project that the applicant intends to realize while at EBS.

Shortlisted candidates will be contacted for a telephone or video interview soon after their submission. Any questions and applications should only be addressed to scholarship@exebs.org. We look forward to receiving your application.
