

The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Graduate Programmes of Economics

Full-time MSc/MPhil/PhD in Economics

The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) was ranked No. 1 in East Asia in economics publications in the top 60 quality journals (study published in Journal of Asian Economics, Vol. 19, No. 1 in February 2008).

Over decades, the CUHK Department of Economics has nurtured many distinguished alumni, who have contributed in different sectors of the community. They include Mr. Vincent Cheng, the first Chinese Chairman of HSBC; Mr. Kwok Kwok Chuen, former Principal Economist at HKSAR Government.

The Department of Economics is particularly renowned for its strength in research in the Chinese economy, economic theory and labour economics.

With 40 years of experience in offering research postgraduate programmes, the Division of Economics is launching its first taught Master's programme in Economics in Year 2013/14.
